BOOK SYNOPSIS

Romeo Marshall is over six feet of cool, smooth, hot, southern seductiveness--just like the music at his popular Raleigh club, The Playground Jazz and Blues Bar. With his beloved mother gone and no father he's ever known, the business is Romeos everything. Its a place where anything can happen--and the evening one gorgeous young woman and one intriguing old musician walk into the bar--and into Romeos life--it does. There's something about high-powered, down-to-the earth Taryn Williams that captures Romeos attention like no other woman has. Yet unanswered questions from his past seem to hold him back from real commitment. For Romeo to move forward in love, he'll have to learn some devastating truths--and James "Piano Man" Burdett is there to teach him. And with Taryn's help, Romeo just may accept that like music, life sometimes needs to be improvised. . .
